How do you get chewing gum off a leather jacket?

I put a hot pot on the kitchen bench and it's left a scorch mark. Can I remove it?

My cat sprayed on the new curtains. The smell is awful and there's a slight stain. What can I do?

Someone in the pub spilt beer all over my expensive leather shoes. How do I clean them?

We're repainting the bathroom walls. How can we stop the mould coming back?

We keep getting these pesky moths in the pantry. Can we get rid of them?

I put my glassware in the dishwasher but it seems to be getting white marks on it. What do I do?

Do any of these daily domestic disasters sound familiar? These questions and hundreds more are answered in 'Spotless', the first book by ABC local radio's domestic guru Shannon Lush. In this essential home handbook she shares the vast wealth of domestic wisdom, tips and techniques that has ABC listeners jamming the switchboard with their questions which is on the radio. Together with co writer Jennifer Fleming, Shannon presents a brilliant room by room problem solver to the stains, smells and scratches that are sent to try us all.

About Me

I'm a wife to my wonderful husband Rick and a mother to my beautiful daughters Tamara and Erin (and anyone else who will let me mother them, too).

I'm an artist and fine arts restorer in 27 different mediums, and as such I use a range of tools, adhesives, solvents and techniques to restore broken artefacts. Add to this a family tradition of sharing and collecting handy hints, throw in a passion for organic chemistry, and you get a woman who can offer more solutions for stain removal than you can poke a stick at.

I take talkback questions on numerous radio programs every week and I love it when other people get a kick out of the wonder and beauty that I find in the simplest things. I love finding creative solutions to the everyday problems that surround us and so far I have never been stumped.

I will be attending the 2010 Country Energy Nyngan Ag Expo
