

Bring your hidden treasures to this year's Ag Expo

'Nynganites' and people from throughout the district will be able to have a value put on their favourite piece of art or family heirloom at this year's 2011 Essential Energy Nyngan Ag Expo.

Internationally renowned antiques valuer, Steven Archer will be available to appraise your treasures at the Expo from 10am to 3pm, with the opportunity for patrons attending the expo to have their goods auctioned at the end of the day. Steven is confident that the valuations will add considerable excitement to the day.

This unique opportunity will give visitors the chance to discover the value of their family heirlooms, there will be a charge of $5 per item or $2 per item for 10 items or more. Steven has generously donated these fees back into the Ag Expo committee, who will in turn make arrangements to disperse the funds through the community.

Steven has featured 7 times on the ABC's Collectors show and was nominated best Auctioneer, his enormous level of knowledge and entertaining personality will be a sure winner with attendees.

Some of Mr Archers own treasures will also be on exhibition and available for sale.

Steven describes himself as a "humorous and happy person" and it is clear that any antique is capable of bringing a smile to his face. Since arriving in Australia from the UK when antiques weren't as popular, Steven has been educating people throughout the country ever since, he said "this country has been very good to me and I like to give back what I can".

The 2011 Essential Energy Nyngan Ag Expo is the ideal opportunity to dust off the old china and other collectables and bring them along for Steven to appraise and to raise funds for the community.

In 2010 the Nyngan Ag Expo committee donated funds to – Nyngan Multi Purpose Hospital, Nyngan SES, the Easter Junior Rugby League tournament, Ladies Golf Association, Bogan Shire Council
